
Marvel Multiverse Timeline

Movies + TV integrated

This rebuild keeps the same basic structure we made together: the MCU as the spine, with adjacent branches for Fox X-Men, Raimi / Webb Spider-Man, Sony's villain line, Spider-Verse animation, and older Marvel TV off to the side.

MCU ordering here follows Marvel's official Complete Timeline published January 22, 2026. The side branches are grouped by universe / continuity rather than forced into one single canon clock.

Main collision points

Spider-Man: No Way Home	MCU + Raimi + Webb universes collide.
Deadpool & Wolverine	MCU and Fox X-Men branch visibly cross over.

Reading key: the next three pages give the full MCU spine in story order. The final page gathers the neighboring universes and side branches we folded into the larger multiverse map.
